

Tini Bot
Singer/Songwriter

Tini Bot is a singer/songwriter from the north of Germany. Born and raised in the coastal town of Stralsund, she took her guitar with her to London after graduating from high school for a year. Then she went back to study the English language. During her studies in Dresden, she made a lot of music with friends and continued to write her own songs in English at this time.

In 2010, she went to Coleraine, Northern Ireland, for a semester abroad, which had a strong influence on her in terms of collaborating with other musicians. She wrote songs with Greek, Finnish and Irish friends, further developing her songwriting. Since then she has been performing under the name Tini Bot. In 2015, she started playing her songs in small cafés and clubs in Dresden. Since then she has been playing in various projects with different musicians and in 2020 she founded her own band with guitarist Adrian Röbisch (ANSA, Triple Trouble), bassist Phillip Rösch (Mike Seeber Trio), pianist Albrecht Schumann (Trojka) and drummer Olli Kunze (ANSA, Goldenhirsch, Risk It! , StrgZ , Aggressive, Kaltfront , TAMAS , Deathrite , COLDBURN , Worldeater).

Tini Bot is part of various music and art projects such as the Shampoo Shows, the Shampoo Nightingales, the Alternative Acoustic Collective, the Neustadt Art Festival, and the Neustadt Art Collective. The North German singer-songwriter with German and English lyrics loves pianos, loves her Taylor guitar, and plays on anything she can get her hands on. Her idols are English singer-songwriters like Nick Cave, Patti Smith, Leonard Cohen, Bob Dylan, or Jack White as well as the German singer-songwriters Rio Reiser, Nina Hagen, Gerhard Gundermann, Sarah Lesch. Their lyrics are characterized by wanderlust, emotional chaos, and political themes.
